CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC!

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.

WHEREAS it having become known to the Proprietors of Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne, that a worthless imitation, bearing a similar name, is exported to India, China, &c., and endeavored to be foisted on purchasers as equal in efficacy to Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne, they feel it due to the public to specially caution them against this compound and request their most careful attention to the following distinctive characteristics of Dr. Bright's (the only genuine) Phosphodyne.

1st.—That Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne is sold only in cases.
2nd.—The words "Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne" are clearly blown in each bottle.
3rd.—The Registered Trade Mark and Signature of Patenteur are printed on the label of every case.
4th.—Directions for use in all the following languages are enclosed in each case:—English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Danish, Swedish, Persian, Hindostani, Malabar, Bengalee, Chinese, and Japanese.

Without which none can POSSIBLY be Genuine.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is the Only Reliable Remedy for NERVOUS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS AND ALL FUNCTIONAL DERANGEMENTS.
DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is patronized by the Aristocracy and the Elite, extensively used in the Army and Navy, and strongly recommended by the leading Medical Practitioners.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is sold by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the Globe.
In India, China, &c., DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is generally sold at an advance on the English Price.
The high Estimation in which Phosphodyne is held is unquestionably due to its administration, in this form. Therefore

ASK FOR

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE
And do not be persuaded to take any Useless and Possibly Dangerous Imitation.

CAUTION TO MEDICINE VENDORS.

The Trade Mark, Label, &c., of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE are duly entered at Stationers' Hall, London, and are also registered in the Chief Office of the World.
Chemists and Druggists are hereby warned that legal proceedings will be immediately instituted by the Authorized Agents, against any person or persons selling fraudulent imitations of DR. BRIGHT'S (the only genuine) PHOSPHODYNE, from this date, 1st October, 1878.

It is a notable fact that Sunday is a great day on which steamers—and sailing vessels—for the rector of that—put in an appearance. Whether they are timed to arrive on that day or so by accident it is difficult to determine, but the fact cannot be disputed. Perhaps the Clerk of the Weather is a religious man, and hurries them in in time for Church—who knows?

An attempt to commit a burglary last night, or rather early this morning, proved rather disastrous for the would-be thief, who fell headlong from the verandah of the house No. 56 Praya Central, receiving such serious injuries that he had to be conveyed to Hospital, where he now lies with both ankles dislocated and his back broken.

We understand that the Committee of the St. Andrew's Hall have presented Messrs. Cullinane and Barr, the boatswain and carpenter of H.M.S. Victor Emanuel, with a gold scarf-ring and a letter of thanks for the valuable assistance they rendered in the decorations for the occasion. The rings have the St. Andrew's Cross, a shamrock and thistle on the face, and an inscription on the back.

The Spanish steamer Emuy, which arrived here yesterday from Manila, brings no news of the missing steamer Madagascar, and we are now almost inclined to fear that she must have shared the fate of the unfortunate Pardo, which it will be remembered, disappeared in the same mysterious manner without the slightest trace being left of her. We shall only be too glad if this conclusion proves to be erroneous, and that the delay is due to nothing worse than a thorough break-down.

It may be noted that the Annual Examination of St. Joseph's College takes place tomorrow at ten o'clock in the forenoon, after which the scholars enjoy a holiday until the 7th proximo. The Annual Examination of the pupils of the Victoria School will take place at 9 a.m. of the 18th (Wednesday), and the prizes will be distributed at 4 p.m. of same day. H. E. the Governor and Mrs. Hennessy have promised to be present at the Victoria School on Wednesday afternoon.

Kwo Sung-tao, the Chinese Ambassador in London, writes to the Earl of Salisbury, thanking Englishmen in all parts of the world for "the generous assistance afforded by them [to the Chinese people] in a time of great calamity." The names specially mentioned are—His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir Thomas Wade, Sir Rutherford Alcock, the Governor of Hongkong, and the various Missionary Societies who inaugurated the China famine fund. Lord Salisbury replied briefly to the despatch.

The following notices appear in the Government Gazette of Saturday.—That Senor Albino Moncarrini has been recognised as in charge of the Spanish Consulate at this port; that no foreign coinage is allowed to be introduced into the Philippine Islands until further notice; and that His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to add the following gentlemen to the Commission of the Peace for the Colony:—The Honourable T. O. Hayllar, Q.C., The Honourable C. B. Plunket, Hugh Bold Gibb, Esq., J. H. Scott, Esq., E. E. Sassoon, Esq., D. A. J. Crombie, Esq., J. G. T. Hassall, Esq., J. J. Francis, Esq., Ng Achoy, Esq., W. Stanley Adams, Esq., M. D. Samuel Barff, Esq., and E. Bowdler Esq.

The performance by the Royal English Opera Company on Saturday was one of the most successful of the season, and was deserving of a far better "house" than assembled to witness it, although the cheaper seats were pretty well filled. Miss Stanley is decidedly better as the prima donna than as the second lady of the Company. Owing, no doubt in a great measure, to the fact that as the prima donna the best songs and the most attractive parts fall to her lot, her voice seems lately to have gained in both strength and volume. She obtained a liberal allowance of applause on Saturday, and deservedly so. Mr. Vernon, although it was evident that he has not quite regained his spirit and dash after his recent illness, went through his part pretty smoothly and successfully. We are very pleased to observe that the Amateur Dramatic Society have kindly expressed their willingness to give him a benefit, and it is quite certain that that benefit will not only be a great treat to the public, but will result in something substantial for Mr. Vernon. Miss Bertha Dräger has never played better than she did on Saturday evening and seemed to fairly take the audience by surprise. Her efforts were rewarded by several hearty outbursts of applause. The part of "Pomponnet" is one suited to the powers of Mr. Rollings, and he gave it a very successful rendering. Mr. Hageman is a great acquisition to the Company, at least when it plays "La Fille de Madame Angot." His comic antics "Trenitz" and "Larivaudière" kept the house in a continual roar. Mr. Franklin appears likely to prove another important addition to the strength of the Company. "Louchard" received a capital rendering at his hands in fact the character assumed a position in the opera it has not on previous occasions occupied, thanks to Mr. Franklin's comic play, laughter and gestures. Mr. Phillips and the rest of the Company also appeared to do better than usual. The accompaniments were ably played by Miss Anna Dräger.

Rev. J. C. Edge, of the London Missionary Society, preached in Union Church yesterday on behalf of the Mission Schools. In the course of his remarks, the Rev. speaker assured his hearers that the religious education of the pupils was carefully attended to, while the powers that be did not fail to satisfy themselves as to the thoroughness of the secular instruction given in the schools. The day would come, he believed, when the Government would not impose conditions; but he thought the times were not yet ripe for that state of things. At present the schools were materially aided by Government, and he also asked for assistance from those present.

On Wednesday and Friday last the Boys' Schools of the Church Missionary Society, under the management of the Rev. A. B. Hutchinson, were examined by the Rev. Dr. Eitel, Government Inspector of Schools, with the following highly satisfactory results: St. Stephen's Church School, Tai-ping-shan, of 99 pupils presented in Standards I to VI 95 passed; in St. Stephen's Church School, Sai-ying-pun, of 38 boys in Standards I. to IV. 37 passed. In each case the failures were confined to the IV Standard. It is a matter for congratulation that the whole of the C. M. S. schools for boys and girls, have this year attained to the same degree of proficiency, passing 97 per cent of the pupils.

We understand that H. E. the Governor and Mrs. Hennessy visited the Bael Mission School to-day. The examination of the Girls' School was held to-day by the Acting Inspector of Government Schools. His Excellency took an active part in the proceedings, and was much pleased to see that the girls had a knowledge of Chinese by the Roman as well as the Chinese character. Mrs. Hennessy examined the needle-work, and the Governor dictated characters to be written in Roman and Chinese form, after which he asked questions and received satisfactory answers from the girls relative to the history of the world. The girls sang one or two hymns, and finished up with a doxology to the tune of "God save the Queen." Mr. and Mrs. Hennessy then went over the establishment, the dormitories and dining-room, expressed themselves highly pleased at what they had seen and left the school after having wished every success to the institution. The Bael School is certainly a pattern of simplicity, order, and cleanliness; and the training there received is of the soundest and most healthy kind; so that His Excellency and Mrs. Hennessy have done well in encouraging the work of one of the oldest and most respected Protestant missionaries in South China.

An application was made to-day by the Attorney General at the Supreme Court, before the Acting Chief Justice, on a writ of Habeas Corpus, for the release of Peter McEwen and John Barry, two men who were confined in Victoria Gaol charged on their own confession with being deserters from the British Army. It would appear that the Military Authorities had refused to recognize the prisoners, hence the action taken by the Attorney General for their release. The Attorney General held that the only course open was for the Magistrate to apply to the Secretary of State, in order to obtain corroborative evidence as to the prisoners being deserters, and if their identity could not be satisfactorily proved they could then be proceeded against before two Justices for having given false testimony; when, if the charge was proved, they could be sent to gaol with hard labour for any term not exceeding three calendar months. No proof was forthcoming against the prisoners except their own confession and desertion; and the Attorney General, therefore, asked the Court if they were lawfully detained in custody. He (the A. G.) held that the Military Authorities having refused to recognize the prisoners, they were entitled to their discharge from custody. The prisoners were asked by His Lordship if they had any objection to leaving the gaol, and they replied that they had not. The A. G. said he thought the Military Authorities should have notice of the proceedings which were being taken, and His Lordship then said that he would remand the case until Wednesday in order to allow of this being done.

Some of our residents were not a little surprised lately at the announcement of a concert in aid of the necessitous shareholders in the City of Glasgow Bank. Here is a cutting from a home paper which would seem to justify the aid thus given.—"At a public meeting held at Aberdeen, under the presidency of the Lord Provost, a resolution was passed expressing sympathy with the sufferers by the bank failure, and also conveying a wish that a national subscription should be at once made in aid of the necessitous shareholders. The following firms have contributed £3,000 each—John and James White, James Stevenson, Charles Tennant & Co., Messrs. Coats (Paisley), Napier and McIntyre, and Clark & Co. (Paisley). Mr. James Alexander Campbell gave £2,000, and several others £1,000 each, including Messrs. James Campbell, James Legg, W. Shirley and Son, Louis Leister, and Stewart and McDonald."

HONGKONG, its Governor, its local Bank, and one of the Bank Directors, have been immortalized by the London Punch in connection with the proposed statue to Earl Beaconsfield. The skit is headed with a reference to the telegram from Hongkong, stating that "Mr. Pope Hennessy, the Governor of the Colony, has received from Mr. Bellios, a director of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, the sum of £1,000 for the erection of a statue to the Earl of Beaconsfield at Hongkong." Upon which text Punch puts the following in the Premier's mouth: "They gave me a statue in June, And now they declare they are wrong, But though Britain alter her tune, There is Justice at least in Hongkong. "With worship I still must be fed, Though Imperial policy fail, I have had it for years from Pig-head, I will turn for it now to Pig-tail."

The following accounts of the average amount of bank notes in circulation in Hongkong, during the months ending 31st October, and 30th November, 1878, are published in the Government Gazette—

31st OCTOBER, 1878.	Average Amount.
Bank of China	194,150
Chartered Bank of India, London, and China	714,394
Chartered Bank of India, Australia, and China	736,891
Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation	1,524,575
Total	$8,169,950

30th NOVEMBER, 1878.

Bank.	Average Amount.
Bank of China	$ 346,450
Chartered Bank of India, London, and China	642,452

The export of Rugs was as follows:—

To Hongkong	94,647	$131,844
" Singapore	105,269	233,858
" Manila	25,462	72,507
Total	125,378	$438,209

$40,000 worth of Teelased was shipped to Europe. The other principal exports are as follow:—

appointment that many selected for service in that ship have any desire to remain longer than the usual term of three years. Yet we notice that the paymaster, Mr. Henry Wyatt, completed his period of service as long ago as February last. The delay in finding this officer a relief is not a little curious, as we hear that not only has he made no application to remain, and is actually making forward to take his departure from Hongkong, but also that others on half-pay have actually asked that they might be appointed to the Victor Emanuel. Perhaps Rear-Admiral Lord Gifford will give five minutes' attention to this matter, and thus gain the thanks of at least two officers.

(London & China Express, Nov. 8.)

It is stated that Captain Thomas E. Smith (1868) will succeed Commodore Watson as senior officer at Hongkong, on the expiration of that officer's term of service in March next. Captain Smith's last service was in command of the Charybdis, on the China station. News from the Cape points to Lieutenant Amiel, commanding the 80th regiment, being in such bad health that his retirement from active service is thought likely. His friends in Hongkong will share regret at this news.

The Army and Navy Gazette says:—The Victor Emanuel is not so highly desired an appointment that many selected for service in that ship have any desire to remain longer than the usual term of three years. Yet we notice that the paymaster, Mr. Henry Wyatt, completed his period of service as long ago as February last. The delay in finding this officer a relief is not a little curious, as we hear that not only has he made no application to remain, and is anxiously looking forward to take his departure from Hongkong, but also that others on half-pay have actually asked that they might be appointed to the Victor Emanuel. Perhaps Rear-Admiral Lord Gifford will give five minutes' attention to this matter, and thus gain the thanks of at least two officers.

A letter from Hamburg states—The new gunboat Wolf, Lieut. Berks commander, left Wilhelmshaven on Oct. 27 on a voyage to China, where she will be stationed for four or five years.

Designs are being drawn up at the Admiralty for the construction of a dock at Vladivostok. As at present constituted, the dockyards on the Pacific Station afford very inadequate accommodation for the reception and repair of vessels; and, in consequence, if any injury happen to the hulls of the men-of-war under Admiral Puzos's flag, they have to proceed to China or Japan to be docked. Some of the Russian papers consider it a fortunate circumstance that Japan should be making such progress with her naval armaments, and assert that the excellent dock at Yokohama and the abundance of coal and provisions to be found there would make the port an excellent place of call for cruisers in the event of war.

It is announced from Simla that the Chinese Government has issued a decree, commanding in strong language, ordering the Governor of Kashgar to take steps for the immediate arrest of all rebels who have fled to Russian territory.

China.

(News.)

On Wednesday, the valuable real estates of the late A. R. de Cerrado, Esq., were offered for sale by public auction. The property comprised both land and buildings, and was submitted in two lots, the first, of which was situated in the Fochow road. This was bought in for £14,17,000. The second lot included various properties, and was bought by Chinese for the sum of £15,20,600.

was sent from one of the Russian men-of-war in port. Happily their services were not required, as by the prompt and energetic action of the engineering staff, and the officers and crew generally, the damage done was slight, and only slight damage was done.

Our readers will have regretted to hear of the sudden demise of another well-known and respected resident in this Settlement, Mr. F. E. Heyden, Consul for the Netherlands. It is advertised in another column, that in consequence of an agreement made with the French Post-Office, and in pursuance of instructions from the Company's head office, the mail steamer Peiho will be despatched from Shanghai on Sunday, the 22nd instant, instead of Friday, the 20th, as previously mentioned.

The air is full of rumours respecting the future of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company, consequent, it may be supposed, upon the action recently taken with respect to the foundry and dock worked by the Company in Hongkong. The latest rumour is, and we give it with all reservation, that Mr. Robert Hart is engaging a staff of employees in England for the special purpose of working the business on behalf of the Company. Should this be true, it will give colour to what has been said respecting both the finances and the ill-success attending their administration hitherto. The letter of our Tientsin correspondent, given in another column, also throws considerable light on the prudent measures of retrenchment lately commenced by the management.

DRUNKENNESS.

Auguste Drevo, seaman British ship Earl of Devon, drunk and incapable. Fined 50 cents.

John Hay and Robert Maginnen, privates 74th Highlanders, drunk and disorderly. Fined 5 shillings each.

ALLEGED THEFT BY A EUROPEAN BOY. John Pengelly, aged 12, a native of Australia and employed as stage boy by the Opera Company, was charged by Mr. Thomas Sutton Lilley, with stealing some clothing, &c.

Complainant stated—I went to the Oriental Hotel about the end of October last; at that time the defendant was my servant and went with me to the hotel. He lived with me there until the 10th October, when I was arrested for debt and sent to Gaol. A few days after my committal, the proprietor of the hotel came to the Gaol and gave me information in consequence of which I sent for the defendant and ordered him to give over all my effects to the proprietor's charge. The boots and the suit of sleeping clothes produced are my property and were left in the defendant's charge when I went to Gaol; by my release from my room in the hotel. On my release from Gaol in November last, I asked Mr. Rose (one of the proprietors) for the boots, and he said he had never received them. I then made enquiries at the hotel about them, but cannot swear that I asked the defendant where they were. I have missed a large quantity of clothes and apply for a warrant to search the defendant's bag, which is looked in his room at the hotel.

The case was remanded until Wednesday next at 11 a.m.

CLUBS!

Chung Apat and five others, coolies, blacksmiths and hawkers, were charged with fighting, with several others not in custody, with carrying poles, at Square Street, Sanyingpoon. They were arrested with £20 or 2 months' hard labour, the 4th and 5th of 10 or one month's hard labour, and the 6th of 2 or 10 days' hard labour, and all were ordered to be exposed in the stocks for 6 hours before the expiration of their sentence.

THE BOLD "LOOK-ONS."

Lam Ping Chung, a Constable, No. 158, stationed at Yowmats, was charged on remand with cutting and wounding Lam Akeu, a married woman, and Pun Akeu, a fellow-constable, No. 160. He waived notice of trial and was committed for trial at the next Sessions.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The P. & O. Co.'s steamship Mongolia, Captain A. Coleman, with the London mail of the 9th November, arrived here late on Saturday night.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

(Straits Times Extra.)

St. Petersburg, Dec. 4.—The Uzar in the course of a speech at Moscow said he hoped a definite Treaty of Peace would shortly be arranged.

London, Dec. 4.—The Leader of the Opposition has declined to move no amendment to the address, but to introduce a motion censuring the policy of the Government without refusing supplies.

Bombay, Dec. 5.—General Roberts has captured Peshawar together with all the guns, ammunition, &c. A heavy loss has been inflicted upon the enemy and a complete victory has been gained by the British force, with a loss in killed and wounded of only four officers and eighty men.

London, Dec. 5.—The Under Secretary of State for India has given notice of a resolution that the expenses of the Afghan campaign be made chargeable to the Government of India.

Berlin, Dec. 5.—The Emperor of Germany has been enthusiastically welcomed back to Berlin, and he has resumed the reins of Government.

London, Dec. 5.—Parliament was opened to-day by Royal Commission. The speech is a brief one.

Hostility (the message is here mutilated) and manner of replying a friendly mission left no alternative course but to make a peremptory demand for redress from the Amir of Afghanistan. Parliament is summoned to meet for an extraordinary session in conformity with the law. Friendly assurances have been exchanged with other powers, and there is every reason to believe that the Berlin Treaty will be successfully carried out.

The Estimates, together with various other measures, are preparing, and will be duly submitted for deliberation. A suitable redress will be exacted from Afghanistan.

London, Dec. 6.—The House of Lords voted the address in reply to the speech from the Throne after a long debate. Lord Beaconsfield warmly vindicated the justice of the war and said the results of the victory of General Roberts will be speedy and satisfactory. He further said that the worst period of the depressed state of Trade was over, and Government was confident in the regeneration of Asia Minor.

The House of Commons after a long debate voted the address in reply to the Queen's speech.

The Marquis of Hartington disclaimed any intention to oppose the vote for supplies, and Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, denied the allegation that a quarrel had been picked with the Amir of Afghanistan. He said the only object of the war was for the purpose of securing the frontier.

(From Indian Papers.)

Lahore, Nov. 21.—A telegram from General Roberts reports that the column advanced this morning and found the Kapigong fort quiet and recently vacated. The column then pushed on to Ahoudahama eight miles further. The fort there also had been recently vacated. The column assembled there and explained the reason for entering Curram, and arranged with the headman for bringing in supplies of grass and wood.

Fort Ahmed, Nov. 21.—About six o'clock this morning Colonel J. H. Gordon, Commandant of the 29th Punjab Native Infantry, crossed the Kooram Bridge with two companies of his regiment. They crossed without opposition, and, having reformed, advanced in skirmishing order, and rapidly and cautiously ascended the plateau on which Fort Kapigong is situated. They met with no resistance, and at once entered the Fort, thus capturing the first position in the Amir's territory. The Fort was found to have been deserted by the garrison, which must have left in a great hurry, probably as soon as they saw the troops advancing, as some unladen cakes were found in the cooking places. The only spoil found was two bags. Previous to this morning's advance at about two o'clock, one company of the 20th Hussars crossed the river higher up, and the 10th Hussars crossed below the bridge, in order to cut off the retreat of the garrison by out-flanking them. Immediately the Fort had been occupied, the 10th Hussars and the 12th Bengal Cavalry dashed on, riding at full speed over a narrow path strewn with boulders and quite impassable for artillery. I accompanied them, and after an hour's hard riding, we reached Fort Ahmed, from which I write this telegram. One prisoner was taken in the Fort. None of the population were visible on the route, and it is possible that a better road may be found to this place from Thull, the 29th were in capital form. As I mounted and rode between the lines of skirmishers, I had an excellent opportunity of observing the line of the 12th Bengal Cavalry as they moved along the narrow path amidst undulating hills. The scene was an exceedingly picturesque one, and the men were in splendid spirits. We shall probably halt here for two days and wait for reinforcements.

Quetta, Nov. 21, 3.20 p.m.—The troops now in the Kulljak Valley are the second Punjab Cavalry, one squadron of the 5th Hussars, the 2nd Belooches (right wing), and also the 32nd Pioneers. A part of these troops will move to-morrow to Judgoom, on the border, or Hyderabad, six miles beyond this. The advance force is to be under the command of Colonel Kennedy, of the Punjab Cavalry. This force will be accompanied by four guns Robertson's battery No. 2 (Charles's) battery. The temperature at 6 a.m. was nine degrees.

Bombay, Nov. 22.—The Times of India's London correspondent telegraphs that it has been finally decided that we shall occupy the Khyber Pass and the Kurram Valley, and not advance beyond, unless the action of the Amir absolutely compels us to do so.

Lahore, Nov. 22.—The Peshawar force advanced yesterday morning. Sir Sam Browne, with his headquarters and the 3rd Brigade, went direct on the Pass, the first and second Brigades under General M. Pherson making a wide detour to the right to occupy Rhotas hill above Ali Musjid and cut off the retreat of the garrison. Difficulties on the road were great and delayed the advance. General Browne occupied the Shajal ridge without opposition, and found the Amir's troops strongly posted at Ali Musjid. He shelled Ali Musjid and extended some troops to engage the enemy's attention and hold him, but he delayed an attack awaiting the arrival of the other columns at the assigned positions.

The following telegram from the Viceroy to the Governor of Madras have been published:—

Lahore, Nov. 23, noon.—The second Brigade has cut off the retreat of the Amir's troops in the Khyber and have captured many prisoners. The Force moves to Lundehana to-day. Our casualties on the 21st were:—Major Birch and Lieut. Fitzgerald, 27th N. I., killed; Captain Maulean, 14th Sikhs, wounded, and 30 or 40 men killed and wounded.

Lahore, Nov. 23.—A telegram from Major Cavagnari, dated Nov. 23rd, states that the Afghani intercepted five hundred men of the Kabul army, and took their arms and clothing. General Biddulph's force, accompanied by Major Sandeman, has advanced close to the vicinity of Pishin. No resistance of any consequence seems to be contemplated at Pishin.

Lahore, Nov. 24.—Further reports from the force received through Jamrud puts the number of guns taken at 22, and states that it is believed that the greater part of the Amir's force, including a General and some of the officers, have been taken prisoners.

Lahore, Nov. 24, 3.40 p.m.—More detailed reports state 22 guns and most of Amir's troops in Khyber captured. A general and some officers believed to be among prisoners.

Calcutta, Nov. 25.—The Head-Quarters and troops from Quetta have crossed the Frontier and advanced two marches without opposition. They were expected to enter Peshawar on Saturday. 800 sibiria have arrived, wanting employment. They state that their tribe is disaffected towards the Amir, and will rebel on our advance. This greatly reduces the probability of resistance. Large convoys of commissariat camels are arriving.

The latest from Peshawar is that the ultimatum letter, which was forwarded through the Amir's post has been returned from the Kabul Dead Letter Office, marked "Refused." The rules of the Afghan Post Office not permitting of the "free" return of such letters as in our own more enlightened department, the question of payment of bearing postage has been referred to the Finance Minister.

London, Nov. 27.—French Mail per Pays Galle 2nd November delivered in London. Consols 99.

Pishawar has been taken by Colonel Meers with an advance guard of cavalry.

London, Nov. 28.—Evening. The Afghan official correspondence has been published. It commences with the accession of Sher Ali in 1863, and terminates with Lord Cranbrook's despatch of November 18th.

A despatch of Lord Northbrook's dated September 15th, 1873, states that the Amir had interpreted the friendly assurances of Lord Lawrence and Mayo as an obligation to comply with any request. Lord Northbrook removed that impression, and, following the Duke of Argyll's instructions, promised material assistance against unprovoked aggression, the British Government judging the necessity of an entente cordiale provided the Amir accepted their advice unconditionally. On January 22nd, 1875, a despatch from Lord Salisbury proposed sending an Agent to Herat to obtain better information about the country. Lord Northbrook objected that the time and circumstances were unsuitable. On November 19th, Lord Salisbury directed the despatch of a temporary Mission to Cabul, but Lord Northbrook objected on the same ground as before. The communications of Nawab Ghulam Hosen describe the Amir as irritable; expressing his readiness to receive a Mission, but procrastinating with regard to its reception. A letter from the Amir, dated October 6th, complains of the harsh tone of the letters addressed to him, the haste in sending the Mission, and the animosity shown; and concludes by leaving matters in the hands of God.

St. Petersburg, November 28.—The papers here state that the Amir has concentrated his forces at Cabul, which is strongly fortified.

Bombay, Nov. 28.—The Kurram Fort was occupied to-day. A native Sikh with the whole population behind him turned out to welcome our troops, and the native chiefs then hastened to pay allegiance. The Quetta column captured the Amir's musketeer with the revenue accounts in his possession. They have obtained abundant supplies. Three hundred prisoners from Ali Musjid are expected at Lahore.

A report from General Ross, Commanding at Peshawar, dated the 22nd, states that General Sir Sam Browne's force entered the Khyber Pass on the morning of the 21st, the first and second brigades being detached to the right to occupy the Rhotas Hill. A severe artillery fight ensued, lasting from 12 o'clock noon to 4 p.m. The Kabul artillery was well served. At 4 p.m., the third brigade, under General Appleyard, advanced, and got close to the Ali Musjid batteries. Four forty-pounder guns of the Afghan guns. Our troops bivouacked on the ground before Ali Musjid on the night of the 21st, and during the night Ali Musjid was evacuated by the enemy. A report from Sir Sam Browne, dated Ali Musjid night of 22nd, states that the captured guns had not been collected, but that probably about ten were captured with many tents and some mules. Major Birch and Lieutenant Fitzgerald, of the 27th N.I., were killed, and Captain Maulean of the 14th Sikhs wounded. Some thirty or forty men in all were killed and wounded on our side. The force remained at Ali Musjid on the night of the 22nd, and moved on the 23rd to Lundhi Khana. The second brigade under General Tyler cut off the retreat of the Ali Musjid garrison and captured many, who gave up their arms."

Madras, Nov. 29.—The Queen has telegraphed to the Viceroy to the following effect:—"I have received with the greatest satisfaction the news of the brilliant success of my brave troops, though I deplore the loss of life. I am highly gratified with the loyal and friendly conduct of the Native Princes on this occasion."

No further news received from Generals Brown and Biddulph. On General Roberts advancing the Amir's troops retired to Tharriah, to which reinforcements are coming. General Stewart's division is crossing the Sutlej. The Maharajahs of Kashmir and Sindia are on a visit to the Viceroy at Lahore.
